THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 30, 1907.

FARMVILLE.

Our people are church going and not only when special services are held, but Sunday after Sunday. Busy house keepers find time to attend upon religious services and this is one of most of our business men. The late Mr. R. S. Paulette never became so absorbed in affairs made real as to neglect affairs spiritual and net er grew to be too old to attend Sunday school. The recent meeting at the Methodist church has been a refreshing one and the preaching spiritual. There are times when most of us agree that religion is the "chief concern of mortals here below."

A stranger visiting us during the glorious October days, wondered we had "such weather every October." Not always quite so perfect as this season but generally perfect and peerless. The mystery is that any one should live in a country of blizzard when bright sunshine invites them. The Texas papers would have it a great deal as the reputed Eden, but that is due to the fact that they know nothing of South side Virginia and so few people recognize the fact that our soil is as genial and as generous as is our sunshine.

Why is it that our local gardeners have lost the art of raising winter cabbage. There was a time when it was as easy to grow them as grass, and now all we eat after the summer variety has been consumed is imported, and their incoming is large and well nigh of daily occurrence.

One of our accomplished housekeepers looked into a bucket of fat oysters in front of one of our Main street stores the other day, smacked her lips and went on, saying "mons but the rich can afford it." Another housekeeper said however, "they are just as cheap as chickens." But in these days of Roosevelitan prosperity, nothing is cheap except the TIMES at a dollar a year. I just want to know how our editors live, and they are all fat and sassy.

Our commission merchants are smiles now a days, as pay day approaches. They carry the farmers through the summer and the farmers in turn, carry them through the winter, and turn about is fair play.

Rev. Mr. Littleton told me in a recent conversation that he remembered the time when the Bishop of his church only received $60 a year and if any one made presents to them during the year the fact had to be reported and was deducted from the annual salary. But times change and men change with them, though the "old, old story" changeth not. The three thousand dollar Bishop presents the same Christ as did the sixty dollar Bishop.

I saw a young music teacher handling her first money and her eyes brightened as she counted it made this and it is mine," and immediately went down and bought her new bonnet. She will enjoy that bonnet as she never did one before. But more of our girls are workers now a days and each and every one of them must have a new bonnet with a long sweeping plume. I litmy hat to them as they pass.

Our bank officials seem to be busy all the time, and some folks must be able to buy money. Most people can buy sugar, salt, shoes etc., but only a favored few can buy money, and this has always been to me a curious fact in the business of the world. Go in our stores and have goods charged to you without endorser; go into our banks with two good endorsers and get "turned down." "The money market is tight just now and we are not making any loans," is so often heard. Why don't the dry good market get tight too and merchants stop selling calico? The goods cost money, that is if they are paid for, so that the merchant also lets them go out of, his store, lets the cash go or the equivalent, still you can buy goods from the merchant when you cant buy the cash and the profit on cash is sometimes enormous, ruinous crushing.

I am told that there are an unusual number of students at Hampden-Sidney this session whose fathers are very rich men and that they do not hesitate to spend their pocket change freely and liberally. I have always thought that the rich should spend their money with an open hand. They can afford it, and it must be immensely satisfactory. To "hide it in a hedge" is almost if not altogether criminal.

The di pensary makes no display, but the sales go on just the same.

I heard an unfortunate hotel rumor the other day but will not repeat it just now. If true, however, even Secty Taft could not "keep down the lid." It will not down at any man's bidding.

Something was said about "swimmin been" the other day but we will have to hide our time as the frost hasn't finished its work as yet.

Mrs. Dr. Wiley, of Tennessee, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jerman.

Mrs. Blackstone, of Hampton mother of Miss Blackstone, of the normal faculty, is in town for the winter.

Dr. Anderson has been hunting deer with the Goulds and was fortunate enough to bring down a good buck.

Mr. H. W. Anderson, of Richmond, who is a brother of Dr. Anderson, is attorney representing the Gould interest in Virginia and has acquired the respect and confidence of the entire family.

Mr. T. H. Bruce, one of our leading farmers, in a recent communication to the Herald says the time is ripe for in the future when the merchants of Farmville will be willing to place a sign over the doors of their stores with the inscription, "For the Association" and evidently means just what he says. If the farmers will only get together and stay together they can take care of themselves. They have all the time been caring for the rest of us. "Blessings brighten as they take their flight," and we are impressed with the truth of this.

As the roses, tomatoes and roasting ears begin to peep good bye, there is a comfort in the thought that they will "come again."

Our local racing season was short lived, but it too will come again as the owners of the fleet-footed steeds all enjoy the sport.

As the time for the meeting of the legislature approaches interest quickens at the extra appropriation to be made to the State Normal school. The buildings are not yet finished and it will not do to allow them to remain as they are. The one school for girls should be the pride and pet of all Virginia. Farmville is making it immensely comfortable for teachers and school and mother Virginia will do her part by them.

A movement is on foot to establish a town library and the men and women behind it will succeed in the undertaking and without the assistance of Mr. Carnegie.

We were told that by this time we would have two new railroad systems, but are still jogging along with our two old ones.

The new bakery is doing good service and our house keepers endeavoring for fresh rolls for break fast. I have long thought that one cook stove could be made to do the work of twenty. It would be of immense gain to have our washing and cooking done to order. Better this than to abandon home life for hotel life.

Mrs. Wert who moved into town some few years ago and first opened a boarding house and then went into the hotel business has made most enviable reputation and it is feared that she may move to some larger place to get a broader field for the exercise of her great talent as house-keeper. If she was as well known in New York as she is in Farmville, she would grow rich in a few years. An accomplished Southside Virginia house-keeper is peerless in her sphere.

Last week the wife of P. T. Barnum was married for the fourth time. She must be finding wedded life something like a circus.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty vigor and cheerful ness soon disappear when the kidneys are diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. Little children urinate too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or when the child urinates in bed it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N.Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Buckingham.

If the published letter of Captain Patteson changed any votes in favor of the Independent and Republican candidates, then their strength without his aid must have been exceedingly small. Republicans and others who say that county officers should not be nominated by the political parties must surely have forgotten the days when no man who was not a Republican could get an office in this county. Criticism has been indulged in to some extent of the kind of men who were elected at the last election to fill the minor district offices, and some of it is just, I suppose, as men of affairs will not bother with these offices where there is no honor or salary. At the same time we can remember the negro justices the Republicans used to elect and if I am not mistaken we have had negro supervisors.

The latest news from Washington is to the effect that "the powers that be" are about to coin some new money with the time honored, very familiar and altogether right inscription "In God we Trust" left off. Will God bless the use of such money? Nay, will he not curse those who thus ruthlessly takes from the circulating medium all that there is about it to remind us of the great God without whom circulating mediums or anything else are as nothing?

That was a beautiful editorial comment on Rev. Mr. Bell's letter in the News-Leader, which was reproduced in this paper last week Why should we go murmuring all the day long when so many blessings, temporal and spiritual are ours. I hope the correspondents of the paper may learn a lesson from Mr. Bell. Such letters as his and those from Manteo and Andersonville are good to read, so let us imitate these cheerful writers just a little.

Our Correspondents relate the New of the County.

Concord Sidewalks.

Please allow me space in your paper to correct an erroneous impression created by your correspondent in your issue of October 30th from this place with reference to the matter of building sidewalks in our town. The charge that the committee has changed its plan and propose to build from the outskirts towards the town is denied by the ladies, who raised this fund for the express purpose of extending the present sidewalk. Your correspondent is also in error when he says the committee all live on the outskirts of the village, where the proposed walk was to be made, thereby impugning to them a selfish motive.

I am not one of the so-called committee to which he refers, but can say the ladies deserve and have the support and confidence of every good citizen of Concord.

Your correspondent would do well to inform himself of facts before he rushes into print and criticises and condemns the efforts to better our town. Let him come forward with more cash and less criticism and we will have still better walks. We hope in the future he will confine himself to facts and not let his wild imagination get the best of his judgment.

"There is need of more currency," declares the New York Times. Indisputably!

On the North Side.

After an absence of some weeks I will send a few lines to your newsy columns.

These are the glorious days of Autumn when a dreamy haze seems to envelope all nature, and the foliage of the forest has turned to red and gold.

We have had several rains which have proved beneficial to the wheat crop.

A good many are on the sick list in this community. Dr. Watts is kept busy. Mrs. T. J. Gardner is still very sick. Mrs. J. J. Harvey has been quite sick for some time, but is improving under the medical treatment of Dr. Twyman.

Mr. H. W. Abbitt, of Lynchburg, is on a visit to his home people.

Messrs. W. R. Elliott and Sam Walker, of Hopkinsville, Ky. the latter after an absence of nineteen years from Virginia, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Henry D. LeGrande in Lynchburg.

A re-union was held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Bates, at Spout Spring on October 26th, in honor of her brothers, sisters and aunt, Mrs. M. S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Cooprender of Shreveport, La. A nice dinner was served. They bade farewell to old Virginia and loved ones and boarded the train for their Southern home.

Rev. L. C. Shearer, of Lynchburg, was in community last week and tuned the pianos of Messrs. W. E. Moore and E. A. Walton.

Miss Mary Lacy Lyle is progressing nicely with her school.

Miss Frances Harvey and brother have returned from the Exposition.

Rev. W. L. Murphy preached a helpful and impressive sermon at Mt. Comfort on the first Sunday.

Conference meets in Petersburg this week. We will gladly welcome our beloved pastor, Mr. Murphy, back.

Revival services were in progress at Red Oak church last week. Rev. Mr. Hubbard did the preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Walton were visitors to Appomattox last week.

Misses Mary Lyle and Mary Abbitt were among those who attended the Teachers' Institute Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Annie E. Mitchell, who has been on the sick list for some time, is somewhat improved.

We were sorry to learn of the death of little Jack McKinney in Lynchburg. His father and family have our deepest sympathy.

The Glenfall lester was very much enjoyed. Wish she would write every week.

Marshall—Gilliam.

"Montevideo" the beautiful rural home of Mr. P. H. Gilliam was the scene of a pretty marriage on October 6th at 3:30 o'clock, when his pretty and attractive sister, Miss Harrietta Frances, became the bride of Mr. J. H. Marshall.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. S. K. Winn.

The parlors were tastefully and elaborately decorated with running cedar, ferns and autumn leaves.

The hymenial altar was a master piece of rare beauty and an embodiment of real nature as well. It was composed of juniper and autumn leaves of richest hue interspersed with white chrysanthemums and white geranium blossoms and illuminated by the soft glow of numerous candles.

The bridal party entered to the melodious strains of the wedding march, sweetly rendered by Mrs. W. B. Ford.

Misses Annie Allen and Ida Gilliam, nieces of the bride, attired in white organdy, bore the ribbons with which was formed an aisle for the bridal party. First enter d Miss Lucy Marshall, gowned in white silk attended by Mr. Floyd Gilliam; next came Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Marshall, as matron of honor and best man; then entered the bride leaning on the arm of the groom. The bride was handsomely dressed in a blue cloth suit with corresponding hat and gloves, and carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with white taffeta ribbon. The matron of honor was becomingly attired in a gray cloth suit.

Mr. Marshall is an Appomattox citizen of sterling qualities, and has won for his fair bride "a jewel of first wa'e."

The happy couple received many handsome presents.

We wish for them a bright and happy future.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks" says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain' Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used."

Umbrella repairing is a poor business, on account of the opportunities one has for exchanging an old one for a new one.

Desperate Coughs
Dangerous coughs. Extremely perilous coughs. Coughs that rasp and tear the throat and lungs. Coughs that shake the whole body. You need a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine, for such a cough. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
Ayer's
We publish our formulas. We urge you to consult your doctor.
Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.
